2021 CELEBRATING NURSES & MIDWIVES

Collaboration breaking barriers

17 – 19 September 2021

If you cannot attend 17 – 19 September, you can still register and once payment has been received, a link to the recorded conference will be sent to you to view at your own time.

Join us for the Forum for Professional Nursing Societies virtual conference. Registrations are now open.

The profession finds itself undergoing several transitions in what we experience as a volatile world. The key elements of this evolution are the transitioning of all nursing education programmes into the higher education system, and the impact and uncertainty of the COVID-19 pandemic that seems to threaten us and everything as we know it around us.

Conference participants will have the opportunity to learn from a range of presentations including keynote addresses, motivational speeches, topical issues in health, poster presentations, and the signing of a pledge in lieu of professional and ethical leadership.
